Terms & Conditions

1. Introduction

1.1 These terms and conditions represent an agreement between the University of Lincoln ("University") and you, a prospective student.

1.2 By accepting the University's offer of a place on a programme (whether through UCAS or otherwise), you accept these terms and conditions in full, which along with: (i) your offer letter from the University (including details of your offer on UCAS) ("Offer"); (ii) the University's rules, regulations, policies and procedures located at <https://www.lincoln.ac.uk/home/abouttheuniversity/governance/regulationspolicies> as amended from time to time; and (iii) the prospectus as at the date of the Offer, form the contract between you and the University in relation to your studies at the University (the "Contract").

1.3 If you have any questions or concerns about these terms and conditions or the Contract, please contact the University's Admissions Office on 01522 886097 or by email admissions@lincoln.ac.uk

1.4 Some programmes may require you to agree to the terms and conditions of professional bodies or third party providers. Details of these requirements are set out in the programme information section of the prospectus. By agreeing to these terms and conditions, you also agree to abide by any relevant professional bodies' terms and conditions.

1.5 If you do not act in accordance with the Contract, or if you do not meet our expectation that you will 'maintain a standard of conduct which is not harmful to the work, good order or good name of the University, we may take disciplinary action against you, under the Student Conduct and Disciplinary Procedure which can be found at <http://secretariat.blogs.lincoln.ac.uk/student-conduct-and-discipline>. One of the possible outcomes of such an action is that your Contract with us may be terminated and you may be removed from your programme.

1.6 If you do not enrol within 10 working days of the start of the term that your programme begins the University reserves the right to refuse to enrol you and withdraw you from your programme (without liability). Students who are not enrolled are not entitled to attend classes or participate in assessments for any modules.

1.7 In the event of any conflict between a provision in these terms and conditions and the documents forming part of the Contract (including any professional bodies' terms and conditions (if applicable)), these terms and conditions shall take precedence.

12. Liability

12.1 Whilst the University takes all reasonable care to ensure the safety and security of its students whilst on the University's campus, the University cannot accept responsibility, and expressly excludes liability, for loss or damage to your personal property (including computer equipment and software). You are advised to insure your property against theft and other risks.

12.2 The University shall not be held responsible for any injury to you (financial or otherwise), or for any damage to your property, caused by another student, or by any person who is not an employee or authorised representative of the University.

12.3 The University shall not be liable for failure to perform any obligations under the Contract if such failure is caused by any act or event beyond the University's reasonable control including acts of God, war, terrorism, industrial disputes
